

Neuroscience in France

Opportunities for master students

Masters in France

98 620

foreign students enrolled in a master in France

2nd

host country for Erasmus+ (European program for academic training)

4th

country in the world for the number of Nobel Prizes

17%

of international students in french masters

272$

a year for tuition fees in a master in France (including health insurance)

A tradition of academic excellence in higher education and scientific research

SHANGHAI RANKING

4

universities ranked in the Top 75 of the Times Higher Education and the Shanghai Ranking 5th position worldwide

Bachelor

Master

PhD

Bachelor

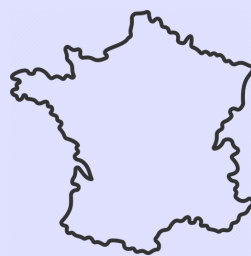

Master

PhD

Years

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Students who have completed their Bachelor's degree are eligible to apply to a MS in France

16 Masters training in Neuroscience

96 Research centers

684 Research teams

A lifetime experience

Studying in France presents a valuable opportunity: a chance to benefit from a prestigious scientific environment, whilst acquiring a new language and exploring diverse cultures and territories.

Useful links for practical information

Neuroscience in France

Neuroscience masters training in english in France

Numerous French universities offer Master's programs in English. Master training includes internships in laboratories with widespread international connections, and therefore an english-speaking environment.

- Master Neurosciences & European Master in genetics
- International master in brain and mind sciences & International master of vision sciences
- International master track in France
- Integrative Neuroscience sub-track
- Cognitive science master & Bioengineering and innovation in neurosciences

- Master of Neurosciences
- International Master Program in Life Sciences

- Joint master in Neuroscience
- International master of Biomedicine

- Master neurosciences
- Neurasmus

- Master's degree in neuroscience
- MSC Modeling for neuronal and cognitive systems

Find out more about masters training

