

Neuroscience in France

Opportunities for post-docs

Research in France

4th

country in the world for the number of Nobel Prizes

96

Research centers

684

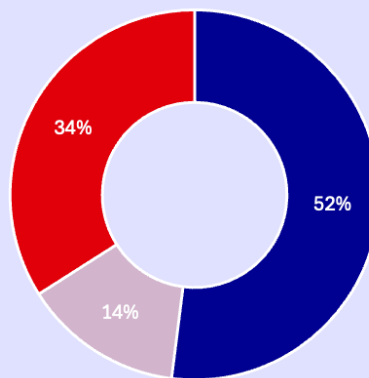

Research teams

Health insurance

Included in the annual salary for a full-time post-doctoral position

A tradition of academic excellence in higher education and scientific research

Career opportunities for post-docs in France

- Higher education and academical research
- Private research
- Non-research activities

Source: Ministry of higher education and research

SHANGHAI
RANKING

4

universities ranked in the Top 75 of the Times Higher Education and the Shanghai Ranking

5th position worldwide

horizon
europe

Being part of a French laboratory makes you eligible for European research funding (Horizon Europe program) with a funding amount of $104 billion for 2021 - 2027.

A lifetime experience

Working in France presents a valuable opportunity: a chance to benefit from a prestigious scientific environment, whilst acquiring a new language and exploring diverse cultures and territories.

Neuroscience in France

Major neuroscience center in France

French laboratories have rich international connections. In concrete terms, they offer a daily English-speaking working environment. Thanks to the links between french research and international laboratories, you will be able to increase your network and launch your career.

Useful links for practical information

