

Neuroscience in France

PhD OPPORTUNITIES

Research in France

69 432

PhD students in France in 2025

5th

most popular study destination for international PhD-students (OECD)

35%

of international students in french PhD

502€

one academic year of PhD tuition fees (including health insurance) for EU, Swiss and French Canadian students

A tradition of academic excellence in higher education and scientific research.

4

universities ranked in the Top100 of the Times Higher Education and the Shanghai Ranking (6th position worldwide).

4th country in the world by the number of Nobel Prizes

Bachelor

Master

PhD

Bachelor

Master

PhD

Years

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

France offers many opportunities for funded PhD in neurosciences

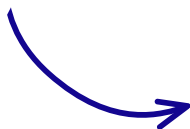

25 Neuroscience research centers

76 Neuroscience Research centers

715 Neuroscience Research teams

Source : Ministry of higher education and research

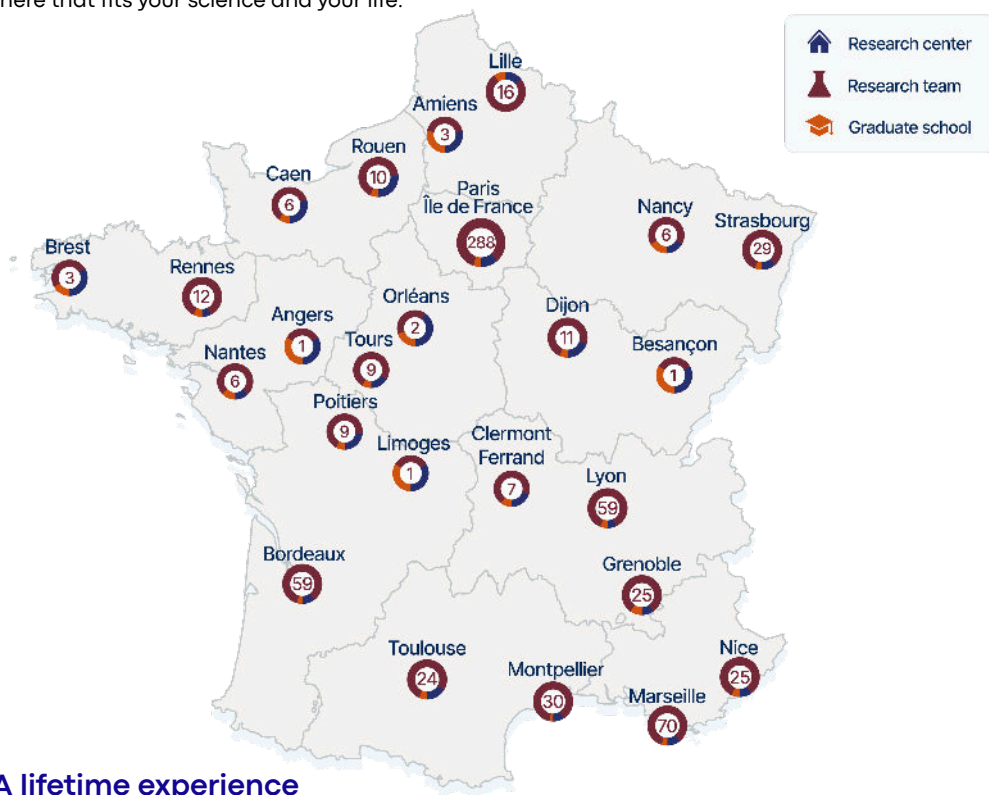

More information here

Neuroscience in France

MAJOR NEUROSCIENCE CENTERS IN FRANCE

From Paris to Marseille, Bordeaux to Strasbourg, Lyon to Lille, France's neuroscience centers span the entire country, each with its own expertise, culture, and rhythm of life. Whether you're drawn to cutting-edge imaging, computational neuroscience, or systems neuroscience, there's a lab here that fits your science and your life.

A lifetime experience

Working in France presents a valuable opportunity : a chance to benefit from a prestigious scientific environment, whilst acquiring a new language and exploring diverse cultures and territories.